Before the zoo closes, Phil and his mom and dad see a dolphin show. The zoo staff taught dolphins to do fun tricks. Splash! Everybody laughs.
August is hot!
The sun shines all day.
I cannot stop playing in the hot, hot sun.

Baseball is the best game to play in the summer.
We walk or run from base to base.
We always know our team is good.
We win a lot and have fun.
Down at that lake
I caught a fish.
We tried to launch a boat,
but it did not float.
Maybe we’ll make a new boat!

Mom thinks I’m always taller
at the end of a long summer.
I think it’s because I run free on sunny days
through the nice green grass.
When August ends, fall will start. First, the winds get cooler. One leaf falls and then more come down until no leaves are left.

I wait for the cool fall and cold winter to pass. I wait for the snow to melt and the ground to thaw.
Then it happens.
The sun shines longer.
The grass grows again.
Summer is back!
It’s time for more fun in the sun.
